

Authentic flavors of Toyama from the diversity of nature and age old traditions.

Toyama embodies the beauty of nature, with 4000m from Mt. Tateyama's summit to Toyama bay. Our ancestors have developed a food culture with the help of their surroundings. Therefore, Toyama's traditional dishes are a gift from nature. Their taste involves a great deal of effort and brings a pleasant surprise for everyone.

The variety and compact size of our products allows you to take them home easily.

The Sachi no Kowake comes from the harmony between the mountains, the sea, the farms and the people of Toyama. Browsing for gifts is a special time, and finding the perfect item fills us with joy. Our products are created to make people happy, whether you receive them or give them as a gift. The single serving size is very convenient to eat. Their compact size makes them fit in your bag efficiently.

